

Identity Q&A with Andrew

Sample Questions

Below is a list of sample questions for use during an open Q&A time with Andrew. Feel free to use any or all of these during our time together, and also add your own to the list.

What is your relationship like with Savion now?

Did you really write out a list of your identities?

How would you describe your identity today?

What have you found most difficult about this journey?

Has your family helped/hindered the journey?

Is there anything particular about being an only child that you'd like to share?

Has being an artist simplified or complicated matters for you?

What is it like being generation 0?

- END -